Have a Mini Pumpkin Hunt

A fun group activity that's perfect for toddlers on up is a mini pumpkin hunt. You can hide one or more mini pumpkins, indoors or outside, and let the family loose — like an Easter egg hunt with an autumn twist.

Video Chat with Faraway Relatives

Online chatting on a tablet or computer allows families to connect from across the country, and even around the world. Chatting over Skype, FaceTime or another video-chatting service will make their day. (A good ol' phone call is still nice, too!)

Give Thanks in Your Own Special Way

This is really what it's all about: Giving thanks for family, friends, the holiday feast, and other good fortune. Relatives and guests can give thanks for something verbally at the dinner table, write and exchange Thanksgiving thank-you cards, or find another unique way to give thanks. Showing gratitude in some way will help children learn about the true spirit of Thanksgiving.
